

Distance Learning 'Key Lesson'

Week beginning: 17.07.20

Key Lesson - The /ee/ sound spelt '-ey' at the end of a word.

I do:

Sometimes the spelling of a word isn't spelt how it seems. This week our spelling words have the /ee/ sound at the end of the word but are spelt with '-ey'.

We do:

Look at these words:

*donkey, monkey, key, chimney, valley, parsley,
hockey, turkey, journey, trolley*

Can you read them all aloud?

Can you whisper them?

Can you say any of them in a sentence?

You do:

Activity 1: Complete the sentences.

Can you find the 'ey' word that fits in all of these sentences?

My favourite thing to do at the park is to swing on the _____ bars.

The _____ uses its long tail to help it balance.

My grandpa tells us not to get up to any _____ business if we are being silly.

What about these sentences?

Which 'ey' word can we use for all these sentences?

My mum added some _____ into the pan.

My dad said _____ is a flowering plant and lots of people use it's leaves in food.

_____ leaves were used by the ancient Greeks and Romans as a flavouring and garnish for foods
